

Please stop this desecration of XM Radio and all of our First Amendment rights. It is an outrage that big business can throw its weight around and influence what action the FCC will take by shoving its money down your throat.